Guard Instructor Needed

The NRCA Marching Knights are seeking an instructor for our award-winning Color Guard. Dance and/or prior guard experience are a big plus for this position. A heart to minister to young ladies through performing arts is essential.

Responsibilities may flex according to applicant availability and/or strengths but has traditionally encompassed:

- Working with our creative team to design shows and routines for games, pep rallies, parades, and competitions.
- Working with the directors to choose, train, and supervise student leadership for the squad.
- Selecting and ordering flags, equipment, and uniforms/costumes in coordination with staff designers.
- Facilitation of recruitment and tryouts in the May/June timeframe.
- Instruction for the August camp (typically the first two weeks in August).
- Weekly instruction for 2-3 mornings a week (7:00 – 7:40 am), Wednesdays after school (3:15-5:30 pm), and Friday after-school rehearsals when there is no game.
- Supervising the squad for home football games (typically 5 per season), competitions (max of 3 per season), and the Raleigh Christmas Parade (always the Saturday before Thanksgiving).
- Coordination of supplemental parent volunteers as required specifically for the guard.
